

Community Care

Policy perspective	Businesses and individuals are responsible for contributing to the community they live and work within.
Policy	Lager Australia will provide financial assistance to local clubs and community groups. Staff and management are encouraged to identify and consider appropriate groups for funding.
Policy Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Lager Australia will make quarterly donations to a registered charity nominated by staff.2. Lager Australia will make a one-off donation to a registered charity or club located within close proximity of its branches.3. Lager Australia will promote registered clubs and charity organisation through a link on its website.