

Team Care

Policy perspective	Businesses are responsible for the health and wellbeing of staff and their families. They can support families by encouraging work/life balance and recognising the role of family members in the productiveness of employees.
Policy	Lager Australia provides opportunities and funding for personal and professional development of staff of its employees and their immediate family and or partners.
Policy Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Whilst engineering and business studies are preferred Lager Australia will provide financial assistance towards any studies for its employees.</li><li>2. Lager Australia will subsidise health and fitness related activities for the employees including quit smoking programs.</li><li>3. Lager Australia will provide financial assistance for studies, leisure activities or sporting activities for its employees extended family or partner.</li><li>4. Lager Australia will provide all employees an offer to gain formal First Aid Certification during normal work hours.</li></ol>